Black Dress Goods

RETURNED tourists know it—that more really fine dress goods can be seen at Wanamaker's in a day than one can find in a Paris ramble of a week. It has been almost a hobby with us to bring America the best and most liberal collection of textiles.

Colored fabrics? To be sure—the finest, brightest loom tricks from Picardy and all France; English sturdiness; German versatility; Scotch set-in-its-way-ness.

But the hardest test you can make of the store is to judge it by its black fabrics. Richness and tone must count for all—there are no color-plays to help.

The silk-and-wool Crepons are most elaborate of all—tufts of velvet thrown up here and there; rows of chenille; streamers of ribbon. Can the looms laugh? They must want to, at the tricks the weavers play. Fine effects. $1.25 to $6 a yard. Mohair Crepons, 75c to $2.75.

But camel's-hair suitings at $1.25 to $2.50 are very popular. So are the chevots at 37½c to $2.50.

Fourth avenue and Tenth street, Main floor.

The Thanksgiving Table Cloths

Here's good fortune—almost equal to having the Thanksgiving turkey walk into your door and say "take me." Table Cloths of satin damask; heavy, soft-finish German linen, beautifully hemstitched—
2 x 3 yards 2 x 3½ yards
either size at $3.50, though regular $4.50 and $5 values.

First floor, Fourth avenue side.

Columbia Graphophones

Who doesn't want a talking machine? Think of the pleasure of having such an entertainer always at hand! They can be grave or jolly—sing, talk or be a whole orchestra. Cost too much? Well, they cost less than ever—here—just now—

the $25 Graphophones are $18
the $10 Graphophones are $7.50
the $5 Graphophones are $4.50

Regular Columbia Records are 30c, instead of 50c.
In the Christmas Store—Basement.

Women's Tailored Suits

Ten dollars for quite stylish suits of homespun, cheviot or camel's-hair suiting. From all your experience with women's tailors you've learned that the work is worth more than that. Why ten dollars? It is the difference between tailoring to order and tailoring in quantity along standard sizes.

The man's suit costs $35 if made to order, maybe $22 if ready-made. Woman's tailoring is simply the feminine of that proposition.

Suits are $12—some regular values, some the ones and twos from finer lots, up to $18.

At $16, still finer suits, some of them full silk-lined.

Second floor.

Girls' Shirt Waists

Pretty flannel waists for the girls of 12 to 16 years—$2 for those made with round yoke front, French back, trimmed with rows of white braid. Flannel in brown, red or blue.

Some at $3—the flannel is silk embroidered.

Finer at $4.50—flannel in pretty light colorings; back and front of plaits—those in front being hemstitched.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Hats for Children

Knock-about hats and hats for dress. The easy, convenient, ready-to-hand kinds that little folks can clap on and think no more about. Pretty, though, and very stylish.

Tam O'Shanter; cloth, plain or with embroidered ornaments, 65c to $3. Leather and suede, in rich solid colors and combinations, $1.50 to $2.50. Camel's-hair, in Scotch plaid colorings, newer than actual plaid—$1 to $1.25.

Toques, worsted, plain or striped, finished with tassels, 50c to 85c. Silk, Roman stripes, with tassels, $1 to $1.75. Babies' toques, worsted, striped in baby colors, 40c.

Military and Yachting Caps; blue, red, brown, tan, plain or embroidered, finished with velvet cords or brass buttons, 75c to $2.

Sailor Hats; patent leather crowns, stitched cloth brims and ribbon ends, $2.50. The Wanamaker Hat; for boys and girls; our own design: a soft white felt hat, broad of brim, trimmed with narrow white felt cord and bow, $3.50.

Boys' Hats; Derby hats, $1.50; Alpines and Telescope hats, $1.25.

Second floor, Tenth street.

New Candies

The Wanamaker candy factory is turning out just about four tons daily. It will get busier and busier until it reaches the Christmas climax—exceeding twelve tons of candy in a day.

People like good candy—like to buy it where there is absolute assurance of its purity. We make our sweets as carefully as though we expected to eat them all ourselves.

Butter Tablets—Six flavors; best sugar and New Orleans molasses and butter and pure flavors. 20c a pound.

Caramels—three flavors; some with nut centers. 20c a pound.

Chocolate-covered Coconut Eclairs. 20c a pound.

An Afternoon Tea

The Wanamaker restaurant is becoming famed for its dainty breakfasts and good dinners. Did you know that Afternoon Tea is served from 3 to 5 o'clock? Fair prices. Half the charm of a good thing is in not paying too much for it.

Tailoring for Men

Suppose you have the winter Overcoat made to your order. The handsomest one we can make is of real Sedan Montagnac; full lined with the best silk we can buy; interlined with flannel. The edges are finished or piped with silk velvet. No need to say that velvet piping will need renewing once a year, but it doesn't cost much—and it is an elegance. $80 for these Overcoats—other tailors as good will charge $125.

Overcoats of good and slightly Oxford-gray fabrics, $20 to $35. Made and trimmed in a satisfactory way.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Bureau Sets and Scarfs

Spachtel-work, and embroidered—from St. Gall. Bright, pretty pieces for bureau. Pillow Shams, too—a good many at half price. For instance, bureau scarfs and pillow shams at 37½c a piece, instead of 75c.

Main aisle, Broadway.

Pajamas

Never had such a demand for domest-flannel Pajamas. And it seems to be general. Manufacturers are weeks behind on their orders—most stores haven't enough. Chances are that those to appear will be slighted in the making—anything to gain time.

We have a plenty—leisurely made; very good. $1.
Men's Goods—Ninth street side.

In the Bargain Store

FIFTH FLOOR

A good many of the Men's House Coats found owners yesterday. Will you be in time to get one to-day? The selection is as good as yesterday—hadn't room to put all forward. Good styles—corduroy, fancy silk and the other suitable fabrics. $2.50 to $9—just half price, every one of them. These other bargains are also on Fifth floor—

Shoes

Women's shoes of black kidskin, button and lace, at $1.90 a pair—would be reasonable at $3. And some slippers for women, Romeo style, of black felt, fur trimmed, at $1 a pair—were $1.50.

The Men's Shoes at $1.80 instead of $3 are still in good supply; they're of calfskin, black or tan; sewed by Goodyear process.

Colored Petticoats

Of mercerized cotton that closely resembles silk. Well made, prettily made. 65c. Good value at $1.

Napkins and Towels

Bleached Irish linen breakfast napkins, 20 in., that were priced low at $1.75, are offered at $1.50 a doz.

Towels at 11c, that were $1.50 a doz. They're double huckaback with hemmed ends; 18x36 in.

Note Paper and Envelopes

Cream white linen, 10c a pound. Envelopes, 15c a hundred. Exceptionally little prices for such quality.

4,000 Yards Dress Goods at 25c

Camel's-hair Homespun—made to look much like the $1.50 suiting, and sure to give large satisfaction. Not all wool—using cotton for weight and throwing the wool up for looks, helped in attaining the result. 36 inches wide, 25c a yard. Pretty color mingles.

The 10 Best Books for READERS

"I have come to regard my Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia as so indispensable that I would not know how to get on without it."

GROVER CLEVELAND.

"I should say to everybody who reads or writes: 'Buy the Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia and Atlas, no matter what else you buy.'"

PROFESSOR A. W. GRABAU,

Mass. Inst. of Technology.

The 10 Best Books for STUDENTS

"Constant use of The Century has taught me to value it very highly. In the new edition you have certainly added greatly to its merits."

CHAR. W. ELIOT, LL. D.,

President Harvard University.

"The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia and Atlas is a masterpiece of the condensation. Its constant use has filled me with a strong sense of the care bestowed to insure accuracy."

JAMES A. BRYCE,

Author of "The American Commonwealth."

The 10 Best Books for TEACHERS

"The Century is always on my table, and I am constantly referring to it. Its encyclopedic features are to me especially helpful. The accuracy of the work appeals to me more strongly with my more detailed acquaintance with its pages. It would certainly seem that it is as complete as skill and ability could make it."

WILLIAM R. HARPER,

President University of Chicago.

"Instead of wandering through libraries to find or miss some important fact, or discovery, or discussion, or controversy, all you have to do is to turn to The Century, recall the first two or three letters of the subject you are elaborating, and put your hand on the volume that contains all you want to know. For all the hurried and hardworked thinkers of the country The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia and Atlas is a rescue and a reinforcement."

T. DE WITT TALMAGE.

"I was an early subscriber for The Century at the full price. It is an invaluable work, being exactly what it professes to be—an authority which to any student or investigator is indispensable. To all such I cordially recommend it."

E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS.

"I regard The Century as the best medical and botanical dictionary and cyclopaedia I have ever seen, to say nothing more of its various other excellences."

PAUL R. BROWN,

Major and Surgeon, U. S. Army.

The CENTURY DICTIONARY & CYCLOPEDIA & ATLAS

The Ten Best Books For Everybody.

This is a "Century" Bookcase—it is of polished oak—33 inches high. "Circumstances alter Bookcases"—these are $5 now, instead of $10. Half Price like the books themselves.

The 10 Volumes contain over 8,500 pages, 150,000 Encyclopedic Art cles, 500,000 Encyclopedic Definitions, 300,000 Quotations, 200,000 Indexed Geographical Entries, 8,000 Superb Illustrations, 310 Maps—in colors.

$1,500,000 was spent in producing the first set of 10 volumes. $5,000,000 worth, at retail, sold already in this country alone. $150,000 worth sold in England during the first 30 days of sale.
